Newest Anaesthetic Demonstrated At American Medical Meeting Story Of Discovery Is Given

By M. D. TRACY
United Press Staff Correspondent.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—A bed of carnations went to sleep—and the world was given an anaesthetic, which its discoverers believe, will revolutionize anaesthesia.

The newest anaesthetic—ethelyne—was demonstrated at clinics here today in connection with the convention of the American Medical association.

Ethelyne is not a new name or a new substance, but is merely being put to a new use.

Here is the story of its discovery:

A florest in Wisconsin reported to University of Wisconsin authorities that carnations in his hot house would not thrive. They seemed to go to sleep and then finally die.

Doctors A. B. Luckhardt and J. B. Carter, then students at the university investigated and traced the trouble to a gas jet.

In order to learn the property which produced the "sleep," they chemically took to pieces the gas generated by the flame from the jet dividing it into fourteen component parts.

Each part was tested separately as to the effect it produced upon the carnations, until finally they came to ethelyne. It put to sleep, and finally killed the flower. The gas jet was removed and the florist again did a profitable business.

But Luckhardt and Carter reasoned that if the gas would put a carnation to sleep, it might have an interesting effect upon a guinea pig. They tried it and it proved apparently a perfect anaesthetic. A rabbit was next made the subject, with great success, and the next step was an experiment with a human being.

"You put me to sleep and I'll put you to sleep," Luckhardt and Carter bargained.

Each anaesthetized the other. Physicians observing the experiment found all effects of an improved anaesthetic and the discovery was brought here for introduction to the medical world.

Dr. Luckhardt in a clinic, produced evidence intended to show that the new anaesthetic had the following advantages over ether, chloroform or other commonly used drugs:

1. Does not asphyxiate or nauseate.
2. Produces analgesia before producing complete anaesthesia.
3. Causes the subject to relax instead of becoming tense, as do most anaesthetics.
4. The pulse decreases under its use and it has slight effect, if any upon the heart.
5. It has been given without ill effects one hour after a full meal.
6. Recovery from its effects are exceedingly rapid.

The substance is produced from crude oil and large oil companies are interested in producing it in form for use as an anaesthetic.

Practically the same witnesses will be called in the Goode trial, men from sixty-four West Texas towns and counties.

Heart's ranch at Barbicora, that under the Agrarian laws the ranch, comprising 850,000 acres, will be taken over and divided. The order has not yet been isued and Ferris is trying to prevent it. It is a big surprise as Hearst is supporting the Obregon government.

Fourteen men in the Silversmith store were lined up and robbed of valuables.

DETROIT-CLEVELAND AIR LINE TO START

DETROIT, Mich., June 23—An experimental air freight service, between Cleveland and Detroit, will be started July 1, it was announced by the Detroit board of commerce.

Three all-metal monoplanes, equipped with pontoons, and capable of carrying cargoes of 1500 pounds each wil be used in the experiment, flying a direct route across ake Erie. Each plane will make twelve trips over the distance of 90 miles, it was announced. The planes will be flown at the rate of 135 miles an hour, making the distance in less than an hour, according to plans.

If the experiment is successful, it will mean a revolution in the shipping business of the country, especially around the great Lakes, members of the board of commerce said.

Special service will be given to banks and bond houses seeking quick transportation to eastern points on the experimental flights.

Old Fashioned Christianity Spoken Of With Reverence In Every Speech of Executive

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, June 26.—President Harding has replaced politics with religion. He is considered one of the most active evengelists in the world today, teaching the doctrines of Christianity in this Christian nation. He believes that the gospel of Christianity is the greatest remedy for modern conditions.

In every speech so far made on the trip to Alaska, the President has mentioned God, not casually, but reverently, declaring what the world needs is a baptism of good old fashioned Christianity.

Hard boiled politicians greet this fact with pleasure, for already they sense a strong and favorable public reaction.

His address tonight will be on Taxation and Expenditure, in which he will show that the war brought out the lesson that we have not been so American in spirit as we had honestly pretended. It is largely unmindfulness that piles up burdens in this country. He will point out that America may learn the lessons of national failure in history strewn with the wreck of a people who lived in wastefulness, in unmindfulness, in extravagance and in profligacy in private life.

ICE COLD WATER NOT GOOR FOR MEN WORKING IN HEAT

The first local heat prostration heard of here so far occurred before ten o'colck this morning. A man working on a well on the Koenig lease took a drink of ice cold water and a few minutes later had to be given attention as he weakened from the after affcts. His condition was not repotred serious.

It is a source of considerable surprise to those who know of the high temperature on a derrick floor that many more collapses are not heard of daily. It is asserted that the heat at a rig in operation sometimes during the day shows a temperature of around 150 degrees.

Galveston To Have Another Big Hotel

GALVESTON, June 26.—Plans are under way for the construction of a new 12 story resort hotel here, according to an announcement by J. St. Mary, promotor of the project.

Tentative plans have been drawn by Paul G. Sibler, architect of San Antonio and actual construction will get under way about November 1, St. Mary said.

Houston Gives Out Killing Statistics

HOUSTON, June 26.—The female is not more deadly than the male—in Harris county.

Records at the county court house show that only seventeen of the killings in this county have been committed by women. Only one out of every four women is white.

Men are the cause of about half the killings committed by women and, on the other hand, women cause about 40 per cent of the killings cimmitted by men.

The pistol is slightly in the lead as the favorite weapon of white men and women. Negroes prefer knives and razors.

Champion Marrying Parson In Bonham

BONHAM, Texas, June 26.—The Reverend G. C. French, pastor of the First Methodist church of this city, claims a record for performing marriage ceremonies.

Reverend French did the knot-tying for four couples here within the short space of thirty minutes. The weddings took place in widely separated sections of the city and the pastor was kept on the jump for half an hour making four out of eight.

Who Made The Devil? Theme Of Sermon At Night

A large crowd filled the auditorium of the First Methodist church and overflowed into the Sunday school room Monday night to hear the discourse of Dr. Luther B. Bridgers on "Who Made the Devil?"

It was the second night of the two weeks' revival and the crowd and interest were very gratifying to the pastor, Rev. W. B. Andrews, to his congregation and other Christian citizens of Mexia as well as to Dr. Bridgers and his singer, H. S. Jenkins.

A larger than ever crowd is expected tonight and tomorrow morning.

The attendance at the morning service today was also encouraging but not as large as it is hoped it will be from now on.

Those who believe in an old fashioned gospel are delighted with the

Venireme nDrawn For Murder Case In Salt Lake City

LAKE CITY, Fla., June 26.—Selection of a jury to try T. W. Higginbotham, convict boss, on first degree murder charges in connection with the flogging to death of Martin Tabert, began in Circuit Court here today.

The jury will be picked from a venire of 84 men, whose names were drawn late yesterday. Fifty-four of the prospective jurymen are farmers, with one minister numbered among the remainder.

Both the morning and afternoon sessions of court will be consumed by selection of talesmen, it is expected. Both sides rigidly cross-examined each man. If the present venire is exhausted without twelve men having been drawn, a special venire will be called.

Tabert showed no animosity toward the "whipping boss", and when the accused man was pointed out to him, he said:

THE MESSAGE OF THE HOUR

The message from Salt Lake City today must come as a mightyy inspiration to the followers of Christ throughout the nation. The writer, following the President on his tour, from the seat of mormonism, sends a story to the nation and to the world that this Christian nation has as its chief executive a man who believes that in the Lowly Nazarene, Crucified on the Cross, the world may see its only hope. He speaks well. It may be that it is now too early to know whether there has ever been a republic of past civilization that offers a parallel to our own, but we do know that they rose and fell, and in their fall, we may learn some very valuable lessons that must appeal to every true patriot in the United States today. The message from Utah is distinctly the greatest piece of statesmanship that has ever adorned the brow of the President since he first entered the White House.

HOW ABOUT THE FOURTH

On week and then the Fourth. What is Mexia going to do about it? This is a timely question already. A week passes hurriedly and unless something is done now, the great day will pass with little notice and will prove meaningless to this people. The business houses will likely close for the day of days of national holidays and the American Legion should plan some sort of occasion in keeping with the spirit and traditions of the best in American life.

Some complaint is heard now and then because automobile tax money is spent upon the trunk highways, which means the roads that "go somewhere," and therefore the farmers residing in remote places get very little benefit, but it must be remembered that the "through" roads must be built first if there is to be orderly construction. RISKS ALL ON TURN OF CARD AND LOSES

On the turn of a card! One of the most dramatic scenes in "Prodigal Daughters," a Sam Wood Paramount production starring Gloria Swanson which is showing at the National theatre today, is where the star in the role of "Swiftie" Forbes gets into the toils of a gambler and stakes a fortune which she has already lost to him, as well as her own future, upon a cut of the cards.

She cuts a smaller card than the gambler—and loses.

What is the result? She must be saved, but how is the heroine extricated from her perdicament? That is a problem that will cause much suspense in a picture that is full of that quality. Monte M. Katterjohn adapted the Joseph Hocking novel and brought it up to the moment in every respect. It is in fact ultra-modern with radio, the latest in jazz dancing, extravagant parties and a thrilling rescue by aeroplane plentifully interspersed. Yet withal, it carries a tremendous story with a motive which has its roots in the heart of present day life and its problems.

Smart Variety in Knitted Frocks

The knitted frock, that most popular member of the dress family, and one of the leaders in the knitted outerwear vogue, is sweeping all before it. Wherever one goes, the knitted frock, in its various interpretations, meets the eye It is equally at home on the links, the avenue in the motor, at tea, in fact, at any place where smartly turned out women are encountered.

It is an easy matter to imagine the frock illustrated worn upon almost any occasion and one must envy the perfect comfort of the wearer. The habit of combining worsted with fibre silk is an especially popular one, and profuse of it is made here In this instance the fibre appears in a tiny cross stitch design carried out in various tones thus effecting color contrast without however, expressing any flashy or blatancy.

Texas University Foot Ball Coach Getting Ready.

By HARRY MOORE

AUSTIN, June 26.—When "Doc" Stewart, University of Texas new football coach gathers his material early in September and begins the training season, it will be in preparation for one of the hardest schedules ever faced by an Orange and White eleven.

Geginning on September 29, the Longhorns will meet eight teams before they go to College Station for the classic close of the season on Thanksgiving. Those eight games will bring the University entry against the best teams of the South and will furnish plenty of material for calculations as to their strength

The season will open in Austin with the Longhorns playing the Austin College Kangaroos probably the strongest team in the Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association last year

On October 6, Phillips University eleven will come to Austin for the second game of the season This school is noted throughout the southwest for the strength of its football teams and never fails to put up a good fight

A week later, October 13, Texas meets Tulane University from New Orleans At present this game is scheduled for Austin but there is a strong probability of its being transferred to some town in southeast Texas, probably Beaumont or Port Arthur Tulane is one of the leading teams of the Southern Conference

Returning from this game, the University team will meet Vanderbilt's Commodores in Dallas, on October 20 Vandy is too well known to require an explanation of its strength Last season it furnished Walter Camp with three players for his mythical elevens and held Michigan, Big Ten champions, to a scoreless tie

After playing Southwestern University of Georgetown, on October 27 the Texas team will open its conference schedule against Rice Institute on November 3 This game will be played in Austin

The following week the Longhorns will move to Waco, where they will meet the Baylor Bears, present champions of the Southwestern Conference This game is looked forward to with particularly keen interest as it will mark the resumption of football relations with this school after a break of several years

On November 17, the Longhorns will meet the University of Oklahoma Sooners in Austin for the last game previous to the Thanksgiving game at College Station The Sooners are members of the Missouri Valley Conference, which is usually rated a notch above the Southwestern Conference However, in the game of last season the Texas University entry upset the dope and won, 32-7

The season will close with the annual struggle with Texas A & M This is a game toward which both teams work all season and the winning or losing of this game is taken as the measure of success for the whole season. Last year the Farmers came to Austin with the odds against them and won, 13-7 This victory broke the record of each team winning on its home field that had been established during the years previous, and the University of Texas is already raising the cry of "Make the Aggies lay their Biole down" in an effort to take this game on Kyle Field

SPARKS OF TRUTH STRUCK LAST NIGHT

"For this purpose the Son of God was manifested that he might destroy the works of the devil."—1 John 3-8.

The purpose of Christ has never been altered.

Man was Created in His image to live in Holiness.

We are not fighting the weakness of flesh and blood alone but against principalities and all the influences and forces of the devil.

Satan is the Arch Deceiver.

If we could get a vision of Sin, we would adjust ourselves to the will of God who would save us from a harvest of misery and shame.

Sin is moral blindness.

Jesus always used the personal pronoun in speaking of the devil.

Jesus was divine as well as the Man of Galilee who came down the slopes of Jordan, conscious of his mission.

Besides Him there is no other God.

An unholy ambition is the secret of all sin.

Selfishness is the bottom of all sin.

Perfect peace comes to him whose mind is stayed on God.

The only hope of the world is Jesus Christ.

wonderful sermons that are being preached by the evangelist. Those who believe in the Christian religion as the hope of the community and country are enthusiastic in the commendation of his stirring messages Those who are in the church but indifferent to its claims or who have attended any of the services so far held are awakening their responsibilities and are set to be blessed All are invited to every service which brings inspiration to the low in spirit, cheer to the sorrowing, hope to the sinner and blessing to the Christian.

The discourse of last night was pure and undefiled religion preached in the old fashioned way of power and frankness. Dr. Bridgers believes in the Bible, every word of it and does not interpret it as a Book which may be read to fit our lives but sees it as Holy Writ to which men and women and children must make their own lives conform thru the Grace of God and His help and inspiration

Just before the sermon of the evening, Dr Bridgers sang "He Loves Even Me"

The text last night was the latter portion of the eight verse of the third chapter of First John "For this purpose the Son of God was manifested that he might destroy the works of the devil"

His subject "Who Made the Devil" was discussed from the Biblical and only reasonable point of view, many quotations being given throughout the discourse. In the beginning he stated that "I do not know as much about this subject as some others, nor as much as I will know when this body shall put on immortality. All that we know of the devil is that which is given us about him in His Word and through our own personal experience and contact with him in life God's purpose in sending Jesus Christ, his Only Begotten Son, to this world was to destroy the works of the devil. That expressed purpose has never been altered. We see in Jesus Christ, the Deity and also see in Him the man of Galilee who came down the slopes of the Jordan conscious of his mission and purpose. He stands today tempted at all points. I have no forebodings of the outcome. We are convinced more and more that we are not fighting with the weaknesses of the flesh and blood alone but against principalities and powers. When you would do good evil is present with you. Satan is the arch deceiver. He laughs at the unhappiness his deception brings to the lives of humanity. If we could but catch a vision of Sin, we would adjust ourselves to the will of God and be saved from a harvest of misery and heartaches and suffering and strife.

Jesus always used the personal pronoun in speaking of the devil. He is a liar, says Jesus in is moral blindness. The devil says to you it is no harm to do this or to do that.

At this point, the evangelist said that the violation of prohibition laws was the work of the devil, in which the evil one seeks to blind the eyes of the country to the awful results of the liquor traffic. He talks of having your personal liberty taken from you, but does not show you the untimely graves made by the licensed liquor tarffic. He does not show you the misery that it brings to the world; the widows and orphans that it creates; the homes that it wrecks; the souls that it destroys; the woe and want that it brings and the nations that it holds back.

The speaker challenged the ministry and the church to speak out unafraid and fearlessly when the devil tries to sugar coat sin and offer it as a tempting morsel to the lives of mankind. The devil is the tempter, the enemy of men and all that is worth while and holy in this world and eternity He has no respect for anyone who fights for the right. We need to open our eyes to the sin that is visible in the worldliness of the day and in the pastimes which he offers through various organizations and institutions as harmless

His Holy word says: "I am God and besides me there is none other."

Righteousness made unrighteousness possible. The Bible tells us that hell was not made for men but for the devil and his angels. The devil fell from his former high estate and in his fall the entire universe was shocked. Satan was not always a devil. Revelation 12-7-9. "* * * he was cast out into the earth and his angels were cast out with him"

Luke 10-18. "And he said unto them I beheld Satan as lightning fell from heaven"

God is one God.—Isaiah 14 12

"What was the secret of Satan's fall?" Dr Bridgers asked and then answered that it was due to an unholy ambition. He was at one time a spirit of great power. I do not know how this unholy ambition entered his life but we do know that unholy ambition is the cause of the wreck and ruin of many lives in this world today. Perfect peace comes to the man or woman whose mind is stayed on God. When man takes his eyes off of God and places them on self, he too is sure to fall. Satan as a serpent entered the garden of Eden to destroy man made in the Image of God, because he knew that the most precious of creations in the sight of the Creator was men.

Man without God is hopeless

The only hope of the world today is in Jesus Christ.

If self has crowded Him out, if worldly and selfish, then crucify self.

Some folks say there is no such thing as Sin These are usually the biggest sinners. "I am afraid of the person who says that there is no such thing as sin"

Women may smoke cigarettes and dance all night and sell their virtue. Men may exploit women, defile their own bodies and commit crimes of the most heinous nature and its all right in the eyes of some folks, but the moment the ministry gets up and attacks some of these evils of the days, he is called "Coarse and common."

We need a ministry that is not afraid to stand up and defend righteousness and truth and Christianity.

Some folks say that there is no harm in anything unless carried to extremes. At this point the speaker illustrated by a woman who had expressed her opinion in that fashion to him. He asked her if it was all right to steal just a little, to kill just a little, to commit adultery just a little.

You cannot live any higher than your ideas.

You cannot trust to human limitations. You must look higher. Sin is not a little irregularity. It is a principal.

TREMENDOUS ENERGY BOTTLED.

Walter S. Josephson, a modest and hard-working mechanical genius, of New York, is the first man, so far as is known to store a highly explosive liquid for every day use. He is shown here in his laboratory releasing from a steel bottle a vapor which is powerful enough, when turned into a cylinder jack, to lift a street car in a few seconds. Josephson's development has been acclaimed by his scientific associates as one of the foremost discoveries of the day and in its own field will rival radio in its sphere, they say. He has been offered a fortune for his device.

GIRLS' FINANCIAL SUCCESS ROMANCE OF MODERN BUSINESS

CHICAGO—If a girl finds it necessary to earn her own living, what occupation should she select? As a clerk she might make $15 a week, as a stenographer $20 or $25, as a school teacher $30 or $40 and in any of these occupations she would be cooped up within four walls.

Many women have answered this important question by selling subscription books. They earn from $3,000 to $7,000 a year. Several thousand college girls earn $500 and $1,000 in this work during summer vacation.

A number of women who have made successes recently wrote letters to their employers among the Subscription Book Publishers Association setting forth their views on the work. Here is what they had to say:

Mrs. T. J. Etheridge, Atlanta, Ga.—"From $18 a week to $5,000 a year—that tells my whole story."

Leatha Jackson, Denver, Colo.—"I like book salesmanship because when necessity demands, you can always increase your income. I have averaged $5,000 a year for five years. In 1920, I earned $5,000 working four hours a day. During the hard times of 1921, I earned $5,000 by working eight hours."

Adele Barrett, Berkeley, Calif.—"The first summer I earned more money than I had earned in one year teaching. The knowledge that I am rendering a service to mankind has made me happy."

Grace Fay, Chicago—"The checks I drew the first summer almost took my breath away. Besides earning more money than I ever did teaching, I have had the pleasure of travel."

Mary B. Hill, Nashville, Tenn.—"I made $900 the first summer."

Thena Feltz, Los Angeles—"It amuses me when some one says, 'But I have never done anything of that kind.' Neither had I seven years ago. But I have averaged $5,000 and $6,000 a year and traveled through eleven western states, western Canada and old Mexico."

"There were many more letters like these," said a subscription book publisher. "Selling books in home to house campaigns takes a woman into the healthful open air, brightens her mind and develops her personality. It is a business with ideals. The woman who sells books is an educational force elevating the standards of citizenship."

Shriners Chicken Barbecue Distinct Success Friday

The Shrine club's chicken barbecue held Friday night at the Playgrounds, was one of the best attended and most enjoyable of events yet held by this live organization of Shriners. Nobles were present from Teague, Groesbeck, Wortham and other points in this vicinity and a delightful chicken barbecue was served under the electrically lighted tree just Southwest of the Humphreys club building. The occasion was very informal, only a few words being spoken in the course of the banquet, those by President Frank Bolton, of the club, in introducing, A. Garland Adair, as honor guest of the club on the occasion. The latter expressed great admiration for the Shrine club, because of its splendid personnel and its active and loyal officers. Following the feast, the crowd repaired to the pevillion where dancing was enjoyed by those who care for the terpischorean pastime. Others took a plunge in the refreshing waters of the Navasota near by. Still others mingled together in happy conversation and when eleven o'clock, the Nobles and their ladies began to leave with a feeling that the event had been a distinct success and wishing for many others like it.

CRITICAL PART OF PUGILISTS TRAINING IS NOW ON

By HENRY L. FARRELL.
United Press Staff Correspondent
(Copyright, 1923, by the United Press)

GREAT FALLS, Mont., June 26.—While Jack Dempsey and Tommy Gibbons start into the critical part of their training for their championship fight in Shelby, July 4, the promoters are trying to find the money to put the show over.

They are seeking a financial "angel" to dig down in his jeans and advance enough cash to pay the final $100,000 installment of Dempsey's purse.

Reports that a Seattle lumber man had guaranteed to advance the sum are discounted here. General sentiment here is that another "angel" will be hard to find and that the money for the arena and the Dempsey purse will have to be raised from the ticket sale.

Dan Tracey, fight manager, before leaving for Shelby, said the tickets in the hands of agents had all been recalled, and that he hoped to have some definite figures on the amount of sales not later than Tuesday night. He hopes to find enough money to give Dempsey his remaining $100,000.

It was pointed out the returns would have to be large because as soon as the money is available the promoters will have to turn over the $100,000 loaned to them to meet the second installment and in addition they will have to pay the contractors $70,000 for building the arena before they have a place to stage the bout.

Tracey said, $614,000 worth of tickets had been placed in the hands of agents and he thought it entirely possible he would get enough money back to meet the overhead.

Dempsey planned to lay off training today, according to Jack Kearns, who said the champion was in good shape. "He boxed ten fast rounds yesterday and finished without breathing," Kearns said.

The champion, Kearns said, will complete his training next Sunday, and will do no more work until the day of the fight.

Gibbons, the challenger, also is easing up, according to his manager, Eddie Kane, who was here for a conference about the movie rights.

While several factions are engaged in controversy over the management and financing of the big fight, some more discord broke out here when plans were suggested to change the date and stage the fight here on July 2. Moy Molumby said, he would oppose the plan unless it was to be staged under the auspices of the American Legion, of which he is State commander. The card planned for July 3, in the arena at Shelby was called off last week.

Orphans of Commerce

ON nearly every merchant's shelves are a few unknown left-overs. They have been there a long time. No one remembers just how long. Dingy, faded and soiled, they seem to be edging away from their more brightly dressed neighbors to a place of seclusion. There is a story behind these shabby little strangers.

A story of how once they were proud and new, dressed in clothes as gaudy and bright as the latest vial of perfume from Paris.

They were sold to the merchant by a salesman who knew their merits. For a time the merchant remembered their merits and told his customers. But little by little these merits were forgotten. The merchant, with his many items, slowly forgot even their names. New clerks never heard of them.

When some of their more fortunate shelf mates were advertised, merchants began to display these lines more prominently and uncalled for and unsold the unknown. It takes little effort and little time to sell goods which everyone knows about.

The shabby little orphans are gradually disappearing. They are being given away or thrown away to make room. Tomorrow they shoppers selected the goods they became acquainted with through printers' ink, leavin will be gone.

DODSON BOILER AND MACHINE WORKS EXPAND TO MEET THE GROWING NEEDS OF DISTRICT

On the Tehuacana road, just beyond the city limits of Mexia The Dodson Boiler and Machine Works is located. The institution is one of the busiest in the field at this time and serving a very needy purpose. Instead of closing down or confining its activioy to a smaller scope, this plant is constantly expanding and enjoying a larger patronage under the able management of Mr. Dodson.

He came here in the early life of the field and soon made friends by the score among the operators here, who threw him and his big plant the business that has been necessary to build it up into one of the largest institutions of its kind and character to be found in the oil fields of Cenrtal East Texas.

He not only erceives work loially but attends to orders sent from other places, whe rtehe erputation for good work has spread.

Within the last few days, the capacity of the shops have been doubled to meet this growing demand and need. Mr. Dodson states that the concern is in a position to take care of all custom work such as bit dressing, welding, boiler repairing, smoke stacks, blacksmithing and heavy forging. This announcement together with the announcement that the plant is open day and night for the service of this and all adjacent field is considered an important one in this section. The paint does lathe work, boiler work, weldings, blacksmithing, heavy forging, sheet iron work, and other work found in a well equipped and efficiently managed boiler and machine hsop.

RISKS ALL ON TURN OF CARD AND LOSES

On the turn of a card! One of the most dramatic scenes in "Prodigal Daughters," a Sam Wood Paramount production starring Gloria Swanson which is showing at the National theatre today, is where the star in the role of "Swiftie" Forbes gets into the toils of a gambler and stakes a fortune which she has already lost to him, as well as her own future, upon a cut of the cards.

She cuts a smaller card than the gambler—and loses.

What is the result? She must be saved, but how is the heroine extricated from her perdicament? That is a problem that will cause much suspense in a picture that is full of that quality. Monte M. Katterjohn adapted the Joseph Hocking novel and brought it up to the moment in every respect. It is in fact ultra-modern with radio, the latest in jazz dancing, extravagant parties and a thrilling rescue by aeroplane plentifully interspersed. Yet withal, it carries a tremendous story with a motive which has its roots in the heart of present day life and its problems.

WEDS KOSSE YOUNG MAN

Miss Iva Dell Hill was united in marriage to Mr. Stanley Chambers of Kosse at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hill, Monday evening Rev. P. P. Lewis officiating. The couple left imediately for Mexia, where they boarded a train for a trip to El Paso and other points in the West. After a few days' visit they will be at home at Kosse.

The bride was reared here and is recognized as one of the finest young ladies of the community. After graduating in the Coolidge high school she attended Baylor university and during the past year taught in the Kosse schools. Her many Coolidge friends, while regretting that she will no longer make her home here wish her the fullest measure of happiness in the future. Mr. Chambers is to be congratulated on his choice of such a talented and worthy young woman as his life companion.—Coolidge Herald.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Landrum left today for Dallas, from which place Mrs. Landrum will proceed to Little Rock, Arkansas. Mrs. Landrum will spend July with her mother in that city and Mr. Landrum will go to Ft. Worth on a brief business mission.

CNDIES FOR SUMMER .....

By HUDDA HOYT

Fasaion Editor of the United Press

Written for the United Press

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 26.—

"The inner side of every cloud
Tom say is bright and shining.
You've but to turn them inside out,
To show their silver lining."

The inner side of every frock
We al > find is lined
Partly wi. blue or pink or green
To match the frock designed.

Undergarments this year match the frock with which they are worn or carry out the color of the frock in lighter tones. Even the little cotton frock has linerie of colored voille to match it. Voille underwear is best when simply made and trimmed in embroidered rosebuds or hemstitching, rather than when lace trimmed, as lace is more effective when used on crepe de chene, georgette or chiffon.

Replacing flesh shades are colors such as peach, nile green, Mountain haze and lemon. These colors are made up in cotton garments as well as in silk ones. Quantities of lace are used this season, as women have grown weary of the simple hemstitched garments. Medallions of lace embroidered with monograms are set onto dobies of costume slips and step-ins. Wide bands of lace form yokes on many garments and are also used as a border about the petticoat hems and drawers.

Step-in drawers attached to long bodices are among the summery models. The other day I saw a practical garment of this sort which did away with a separate costume slip. A long bodice with darwer attachment back of the waistline so that a petticoat could be buttoned onto it, eliminated buttons at the sides, front and ating the costume slip, and at the same time holding the petticoat at a low waistline.

Irish lace is used extensively this season on undergarments. It is often dyed to match the color of the garment. Since ecru is so popular as a dress shade, ecru dyed lace used on an ecru crepe de chene garmnt is lovely. Being a nutral shade ecru can be used under various colored frocks.

Vacation Undergarments

Among the new crepes one can find numerous lovely materials for the vacation underwear, which is easily laundered and will require no ironing. Crepes are always prettier in colors than in white, as white turns yellow so quickly unless laundered by experts. The most practical crepe lingerie is made without lace or trimming, except hemstitching or border effects of contrasting color. Some of the novelty crepes are lovely for the out-door girl, as they have borders with tennis racquets, golf balls, etc., stenciled in contrasting colors.

While pongee makes a practical vacation undergarmont, it is not as cool as other silks or cotton materials.

Nightgowns which have become torn under the arms can be cut off and stitched on a band of wide lace to which are attached shoulder straps, making a cool vacation nightrobe.

Police Commissioner Richard E. Enright was in his automobile, driven by his chauffeur, Detective Charles Eisle, when he heard a fusilade of shots and found one of his detectives in a pistol duel with Lambatta, wanted by the police. Without hesitation, Enright followed the fugitive into a hallway, bullets splintering the wall all about him, and finally cornered him. Lambatta was found to be seriously wounded. Enright, it developed, was not armed.

ALL NOTED PLAYERS IN SWANSON PICTURE

If, a few years ago, a casting director had handed in a cast such as that supplied Gloria Swanson in her latest Paramount picture, "Prodigal Daughters," which is playing at the National theatre today, the chances are the studio management would collapse. But Paramount is determined that casts of the highest possible calibre shall grace each of its pictures, and no expense to that end was spared. Here is the line-up for the picture in question:

Gloria Swanson, star; Ralph Graves, leading man; Vera Reynolds, Charles Clary, Theodore Roberts, George Fawcett, Robert Agnew, Louise Dresser, Madue Wayne and Julia Faye.

In the list are at least three who have had remarkable stage careers. Sveral more have been leading figures of the silent drama for years. The star is one of the screen's most beautiful and bst dressed women. And yet every player is picked because of suitability as well as ability.

JUDGE RENDERS JUDGMENT OF SOLOMON

Judge Joseph David, in Municipal Court, in Chicago, was forced to render the Judgment of Solomon when he awarded to Mrs. Julia Warzna Pribylski the custody of 5-year-old Leona Felicia Warzna and pronounced her the real mother of the child. Mrs. Nicholas Lenz, who also claimed the child, collapsed. Mrs. Prebylski claimed the child was born to her in Poland in 1918. Mrs. Lenz asserted the child was born to her in Chicago as the result of a Caesarian operation the same year. Judge David asserted there had been much perjury in the case.

Gushers Come Back To Life In Waco Monday

Redskins Are Defeated Five To Two In Game

The Gushers came back to life and added another game to their column by defeating the Waco Indians in the game Monday by the score of 5 to 2. The game was interesting all the way through. Royster and Shires contesting first baseman on the opposing squads engaged in a little difference, one of the results of which that both were sent to showers and civies.

Fred Karner, who attended the game, reports that Leedy made one of the most wonderful plays he had ever seen. Barehanded he caught a hot one right off the bat down toward second base which loomed as a valuable single for the Redskins as it passed across the diamond, which otherwise would have allowed two runs.

Hub Northen was given credit for saving the day when he caught a high one on first which looked like a sure overthrow. Hub went to first base after Royster left the game. Tiner went to right field and Hill kept on pitching. At the time that Hub made the fine catch, the game looked disastrous for the Gushers, as the Indians had gathered together for a final rally to win the contest.

Waller played a fine game in the field for the Redskins and hit a double and a single in his trips to the bat. Lewis and Ferguson, short stop and right field players for the Indians had a day off it seemed, each making two errors.

The Gushers bunched five hits with Waco errors and counted five runs in the second inning, but after that they only touched Green for three hits.

Salesmen Win Game From The Lions Monday

The Salesmanship club base ball nine, Monday, turned out to be a bunch of Lion Tamers by taking the Lions into camp and out the back door by the score of 16 to 11. The Lions whooped and roared and cut up in general but to no avail and the Salesmanship boys just worked on the harder until the Lions were ready for a good tall tree to climb, but if they had the Sailors would have put on full speed and got a tree just a little higher for their roosting place. Both nines hit the ball to all four corners of the park and nearly everyone made enough errors to do the Gushers for a whole season and have some to start in on next season. Jimmie Stewart started in the box for the Lion Tamers and he went well until his southpaw flinger went to the bad and he was forced to retire in favor of Hardy Eubanks and he was nicked for several runs and hits, but not enough to come in reach of the leaders. Phil Karner was in the box for the Lions and pitched creditable ball, with the exceptions of a few bad innings and he retired at the last and let Blake Forrest throw'em across to the boys.

Robert Nunn playing left field for the Lions made several sensational catches of ball that looked mighty bad and he swatted a three bagger to make things the more merrier.

It took the whole corps of score keeper to cover the game and Charley Clover was perspiring like a water cooler, but looked more like a red hot stove.

[illegible] was invisible almost, but those that were there had the time of [illegible] watching the agate tossers and sweaters work for a while. Many of the players palyed out before quitting time and had to be supplied with new material.

Tuesday morning there was a meeting of the Directors of the Y. M. C. A. at Col. Humphreys office.

"If we have tears prepare to shed them now.' For it is only on the WESTBOUND passage that this order for ales, wines and spiritous beverages will have any weight with the officials on the White Star Line. But coming to America passengers can order all the liquor they can consume—and they must consume it before they reach the three-mile line off the coast of America, for there it is thrown overboard.

SPORTLIGHTS

They have big crowds at the ball game down at Austin. Something like six hundred came out to see the Gushers win the second game from the Rangers there. Just think of a city of 40,000 or more having a crowd of 600 out to see the national pastime.

It is ture that here of late that we have not been having enormous crowds out at the games but we usually have about 8 or 9 hundred on week day, and about 1,000 on Sundays and this is just a small town of 10,000 people, or perhaps less. But why should we worry.

Ludwig, former Gusher and Indian pitcher, has been released by the Indians and has signed and is playing with the Rosebud Rose in the News-Tribune League. He pitched a game against the Comets of Cameron and allowed 5 hits and struck out eight men. Rosebud won 4 to 2.

Austin pitched an easy man against the Sherman Sox yesterday and the Sox won 8 to 4. Watch out.

Why should such things bring up a fight. We like to see the game played clean without anything to mar the pleasure. Of course, when the game is lagging a little some would like to see a fight to liven up things, but no matter how dry the game is, we don't like to see fights to liven up things.

By M. D. TRACY
United Press Staff Correspondent.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—A bed of carnations went to sleep—and the world was given an anaesthetic, which its discoverers believe, will revolutionize anaesthesia.

The newest anaesthetic—ethelyne—was demonstrated at clinics here today in connection with the convention of the American Medical association.

Ethelyne is not a new name or a new substance, but is merely being put to a new use.

Here is the story of its discovery:

A florest in Wisconsin reported to University of Wisconsin authorities that carnations in his hot house would not thrive. They seemed to go to sleep and then finally die.

Doctors A. B. Luckhardt and J. B. Carter, then students at the university investigated and traced the trouble to a gas jet.

In order to learn the property which produced the "sleep," they chemically took to pieces the gas generated by the flame from the jet dividing it into fourteen component parts.

Each part was tested separately as to the effect it produced upon the carnations, until finally they came to ethelyne. It put to sleep, and finally killed the flower. The gas jet was removed and the florist again did a profitable business.

But Luckhardt and Carter reasoned that if the gas would put a carnation to sleep, it might have an interesting effect upon a guinea pig. They tried it and it proved apparently a perfect anaesthetic. A rabbit was next made the subject, with great success, and the next step was an experiment with a human being.

"You put me to sleep and I'll put you to sleep," Luckhardt and Carter bargained.

Each anaesthetized the other. Physicians observing the experiment found all effects of an improved anaesthetic and the discovery was brought here for introduction to the medical world.

Dr. Luckhardt in a clinic, produced evidence intended to show that the new anaesthetic had the following advantages over ether, chloroform or other commonly used drugs:

1. Does not asphyxiate or nauseate.
2. Produces analgesia before producing complete anaesthesia.
3. Causes the subject to relax instead of becoming tense, as do most anaesthetics.
4. The pulse decreases under its use and it has slight effect, if any upon the heart.
5. It has been given without ill effects one hour after a full meal.
6. Recovery from its effects are exceedingly rapid.

The substance is produced from crude oil and large oil companies are interested in producing it in form for use as an anaesthetic.

Testimony All Concluded In Ross Trial

LUBBOCK, Texas, June 26.—Testimony in the Tom Ross trial was completed this morning and the judge is to instruct the jury this afternoon. Attorneys will plead into the night session if necessary to allow the case to go to the jury. It is indicated that a quick verdict is expected and the Milt Goode case will be called at once. Practically the same witnesses will be called in the Goode trial, men from sixty-four West Texas towns and counties.

CHIHUAHUA HEAD TO CONFISCATE W. R. HEARST RANCH

MEXICO CITY, June 26.—Governor Enrique at Chihuahua notified William Ferris, manager of W. R. Heart's ranch at Barbicora, that under the Agrarian laws the ranch, comprising 850,000 acres, will be taken over and divided. The order has not yet been isued and Ferris is trying to prevent it. It is a big surprise as Hearst is supporting the Obregon government.

Six Auto Bandits Bob and Probably Fatally Shoot Man

CHICAGO, June 26.—Peter Stout, cigar store manager, was probably fatally shot by six automobile bandits who held up and robbed two South side cigar stores and a bakery of about $8,000.

After robbing the bakery and carting a safe containing $5,000 from the Louis Silversmith cigar store, the bandits entered Stout's place and began shooting, wounding the manager and causing a panic among fifteen customers.

Fourteen men in the Silversmith store were lined up and robbed of valuables.

DETROIT-CLEVELAND AIR LINE TO START

DETROIT, Mich., June 23—An experimental air freight service, between Cleveland and Detroit, will be started July 1, it was announced by the Detroit board of commerce.

Three all-metal monoplanes, equipped with pontoons, and capable of carrying cargoes of 1500 pounds each wil be used in the experiment. flying a direct route across ake Erie. Each plane will make twelve trips over the distance of 90 miles, it was announced. The planes will be flown at the rate of 135 miles an hour, making the distance in less than an hour, according to plans.

If the experiment is successful, it will mean a revolution in the shipping business of the country, especially around the great Lakes, members of the board of commerce said.

Special service will be given to banks and bond houses seeking quick transportation to eastern points on the experimental flights.

DALLAS, June 26.—Between forty and fifty were injured when a wooden run way into the open air theatre at Cycle park collapsed under the weight of the crowd. Police, volunteers and ambulance attendants aided in the work of rescue.

Old Fashioned Christianity Spoken Of With Reverence In Every Speech of Executive

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, June 26.—President Harding has replaced politics with religion. He is considered one of the most active evengelists in the world today, teaching the doctrines of Christianity in this Christian nation. He believes that the gospel of Christianity is the greatest remedy for modern conditions.

In every speech so far made on the trip to Alaska, the President has mentioned God, not casually, but reverently, declaring what the world needs is a baptism of good old fashioned Christianity.

Hard boiled politicians greet this fact with pleasure, for already they sense a strong and favorable public reaction.

His address tonight will be on Taxation and Expenditure, in which he will show that the war brought out the lesson that we have not been so American in spirit as we had honestly pretended. It is largely unmindfulness that piles up burdens in this country. He will point out that America may learn the lessons of national failure in history strewn with the wreck of a people who lived in wastefulness, in unmindfulness, in extravagance and in profligacy in private life.

ICE COLD WATER NOT GOOR FOR MEN WORKING IN HEAT

The first local heat prostration heard of here so far occurred before ten o'colck this morning. A man working on a well on the Koenig lease took a drink of ice cold water and a few minutes later had to be given attention as he weakened from the after afects. His condition was not repotred serious.

It is a source of considerable surprise to those who know of the high temperature on a derrick floor that many more collapses are not heard of daily. It is asserted that the heat at a rig in operation sometimes during the day shows a temperature of around 150 degrees.

Private Pleasure Yacht of Ferris Is Badly Damaged

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex., June 26.—The private pleasure yacht Ranger, owned by Royal A. Ferris of Dallas, was badly damaged by an explosion and fire in the harbor here yesterday.

Captain Bryant was burned about the face and shoulders while attempting to put out the flames. His injuries are not considered serious.

The explosion was caused by a short circuit from the dynamo which ignited a supply of gasoline.

Galveston To Have Another Big Hotel

GALVESTON, June 26.—Plans are under way for the construction of a new 12 story resort hotel here, according to an announcement by J. St. Mary, promotor of the project.

The building which would contain about 450 rooms, would cost approximately $250,000.

Tentative plans have been drawn by Paul G. Sibler, architect of San Antonio and actual construction will get under way about November 1, St. Mary said.

Houston Gives Out Killing Statistics

HOUSTON, June 26.—The female is not more deadly than the male—in Harris county.

Records at the county court house show that only seventeen of the killings in this county have been committed by women. Only one out of every four women is white.

Men are the cause of about half the killings committed by women and, on the other hand, women cause about 40 per cent of the killings cimmitted by men.

The pistol is slightly in the lead as the favorite weapon of white men and women. Negroes prefer knives and razors.

AUSTIN, June 26.—The movies have called W. T. Vann, assistant sergeant-at-arms of the Texas House of Representatives who is going to California to investigate offers tendered him by two leading producers.

Vann is a striking figure, over six feet in height and with silvery white hair, although he is but 47 years of age.

Champion Marrying Parson In Bonham

BONHAM, Texas, June 26.—The Reverend G. C. French, pastor of the First Methodist church of this city, claims a record for performing marriage ceremonies.

Reverend French did the knot-tying for four couples here within the short space of thirty minutes. The weddings took place in widely separated sections of the city and the pastor was kept on the jump for half an hour making four out of eight.

Who Made The Devil? Theme Of Sermon At Night

A large crowd filled the auditorium of the First Methodist church and overflowed into the Sunday school room Monday night to hear the discourse of Dr. Luther B. Bridgers on "Who Made the Devil?"

It was the second night of the two weeks' revival and the crowd and interest were very gratifying to the pastor, Rev. W. B. Andrews, to his congregation and other Christian citizens of Mexia as well as to Dr. Bridgers and his singer, H. S. Jenkins.

A larger than ever crowd is expected tonight and tomorrow morning.

The attendance at the morning service today was also encouraging but not as large as it is hoped it will be from now on.

Those who believe in an old fashioned gospel are delighted with the

Venireme nDrawn For Murder Case In Salt Lake City

LAKE CITY, Fla., June 26.—Selection of a jury to try T. W. Higginbotham, convict boss, on first degree murder charges in connection with the flogging to death of Martin Tabert, began in Circuit Court here today.

The jury will be picked from a venire of 84 men, whose names were drawn late yesterday. Fifty-four of the prospective jurymen are farmers, with one minister numbered among the remainder.

Both the morning and afternoon sessions of court will be consumed by selection of talesmen, it is expected. Both sides rigidly cross-examined each man. If the present venire is exhausted without twelve men having been drawn, a special venire will be called.

Tabert showed no animosity toward the "whipping boss", and when the accussed man was pointed out to him, he said:

THE MESSAGE OF THE HOUR

The message from Salt Lake City today must come as a mightyy inspiration to the followers of Christ throughout the nation. The writer, following the President on his tour, from the seat of mormonism, sends a story to the nation and to the world that this Christian nation has as its chief executive a man who believes that in the Lowly Nazarene, Crucified on the Cross, the world may see its only hope. He speaks well. It may be that it is now too early to know whether there has ever been a republic of past civilization that offers a parallel to our own, but we do know that they rose and fell, and in their fall, we may learn some very valuable lessons that must appeal to every true patriot in the United States today. The message from Utah is distinctly the greatest piece of statesmanship that has ever adorned the brow of the President since he first entered the White House.

HOW ABOUT THE FOURTH

On week and then the Fourth. What is Mexia going to do about it? This is a timely question already. A week passes hurriedly and unless something is done now, the great day will pass with little notice and will prove meaningless to this people. The business houses will likely close for the day of days of national holidays and the American Legion should plan some sort of occasion in keeping with the spirit and traditions of the best in American life.

Still, if we put the evolution theory in the discard it will be awfully hard to explain the antics of some of our neighbors.—Terrell Transcript.

Some men may have evoluted from the monkey, but those who are making the claim have not evoluted very far.

Willie Wise says it is warmer on the paved streets than off them, caused by the autos burning the wind.

Up in the eastern and northern states the mercury is reported all the way from 91 to 96, and people are dying from the effects of the heat. What do you think of that? Why, right here in the Daily News office, right now while this is being wirtten (3:30 p. m., Monday, June 25) the thermometer registers 100—understand—100, and the force is working right along and joking about the possibilities of the future life. Come to Texas.

Man is a transcedental ideation of solidaric intcueptive autotheonal redaction and orgasmic individuation of mobilized egressus and noetic and dianetic plasticities of intellectivity; that is, an ectypical maroscosmic modality of ultraneous and fusiform differentation, spontaneously race mated into homopenous individuality. —Clipped.

There have never been any children in the Harding family, and the president had to go into the wheat fields of Kansas to find a baby to have his picture taken with. Wonder if that was what shocked the wheat?

Hollywood is filming the Ten Commandments, evidently under the impression that they are latest discovery from King Tut's tomb.—Dallas News.

The question naturally arises do the filmers live up to their playing? Judging from the court records out there many of them have never even heard of the Seventh Commandment.

Notwithstanding the awful heat some people are beginning to talk politics. A man out in Eastland county has already entered the race for governor, and the primary election is more than a year away.

The meanest man has been located at last. For fear the K. K. K's. might get busy, we refuse to name his place of residence, but he pawned his wife's false teeth for seven dollars and took another woman joy riding.—Mineral Wells Index.

And yet there be those who still contend that there is no work in this country for the Klan to do.

While it was raining in Mexia the other day (just for a few minutes), the colored porter of the News office (who also owns a few oil wells), remarked that he would rather see the rain than to get five dollars, because it would make his melons grow. Just goes to show where his mind "was at."

When it comes to intrinsic values we reckon one German mark and Collier's persidential poll are worth about the same.—Geo. Bailey in Houston Post. Hardly the paper it is printed on.

The first bale of cotton for this season arrived in Houston Saturday night, June 23, just before midnight. It was raised near Kingsville and brought to Houston on a special train. It is a few days later than the first bale last year, due to weather conditions.

Some complaint is heard now and then because automobile tax money is spent upon the trunk highways, which means the roads that "go somewhere," and therefore the farmers residing in remote places get very little benefit, but it must be remembered that the "through" roads must be built first if there is to be orderly construction. Any other course would be as ridiculous as for a railroad to build its sidetracks first and come along later with the main line.—Mart Herald.

Some people would kick if they were going to be hung. It seems to be human nature.

RISKS ALL ON TURN OF CARD AND LOSES

On the turn of a card! One of the most dramatic scenes in "Prodigal Daughters," a Sam Wood Paramount production starring Gloria Swanson which is showing at the National theatre today, is where the star in the role of "Swiftie" Forbes gets into the toils of a gambler and stakes a fortune which she has already lost to him, as well as her own future, upon a cut of the cards.

She cuts a smaller card than the gambler—and loses.

What is the result? She must be saved, but how is the heroine extricated from her perdicament? That is a problem that will cause much suspense in a picture that is full of that quality. Monte M. Katterjohn adapted the Joseph Hocking novel and brought it up to the moment in every respect. It is in fact ultra-modern with radio, the latest in jazz dancing, extravagant parties and a thrilling rescue by aeroplane plentifully interspersed. Yet withal, it carries a tremendous story with a motive which has its roots in the heart of present day life and its problems.

Smart Variety in Knitted Frocks

The knitted frock, that most popular member of the dress family, and one of the leaders in the knitted outerwear vogue, is sweeping all before it. Wherever one goes, the knitted frock, in its various interpretations, meets the eye. It is equally at home on the links, the avenue, in the motor, at tea, in fact, at any place where smartly turned-out women are encountered.

It is an easy matter to imagine the frock illustrated worn upon almost any occasion, and one must envy the perfect comfort of the wearer. The habit of combining worsted with fibre silk is an especially popular one, and good use of it is made here. In this instance the fibre appears in a tiny cross-stitch design, carried out in varicolors, thus effecting color contrast without however, expressing any feeling of blatancy.

The introduction of the two-piece knitted frock was singularly fortunate, inasmuch as women were eager to depart for a time from the straight line, chemise type of frock which has been so much in the public eye. A slender, self girdle may be worn with the frock illustrated, if one wishes, but a newer more youthful dictum is that it shall be attached casually at one side, where it is permitted to extend from the edge of the blouse in most nonchalant manner.

KANSAS FARMERS NOT GETTING HELP

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 26.—Twenty thousand hands today swung into the work of harvesting Kansas' wheat crop.

The available supply of workers will be insufficient to meet immediate demands of farmers, according to belief of George E. Tucker, director of the United States Labor Bureau here today.

Due to heavy rains, which retarded harvesting in Southern sections of the State, grain throughout Kansas is ripening practically simultaneously and quick work will be needed to save the wheat from becoming over-ripe.

Huge binders and headers attacked acres of waving fields with prospects that the harvest will be largely taken care of in the next ten days.

Texas University Foot Ball Coach Getting Ready.

By HARRY MOORE

AUSTIN, June 26.—When "Doc" Stewart, University of Texas new football coach gathers his material early in September and begins the training season, it will be in preparation for one of the hardest schedules ever faced by an Orange and White eleven.

Geginning on September 29, the Longhorns will meet eight teams before they go to College Station for the classic close of the season on Thanksgiving. These eight games will bring the University entry against the best teams of the South and will furnish plenty of material for calculations as to their strength.

The season will open in Austin with the Longhorns playing the Austin College Kangaroos. probably the strongest team in the Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association last year.

On October 6, Phillips University eleven will come to Austin for the second game of the season. This school is noted throughout the south west for the strength of its football teams and never fails to put up a good fight.

A week later, October 13, Texas meets Tulane University from New Orleans. At present this game is scheduled for Austin but there is a strong probability of its being transferred to some town in southeast Texas, probably Beaumont or Port Arthur. Tulane is one of the leading teams of the Southern Conference.

Returning from this game, the University team will meet Vanderbilt's Commodores in Dallas, on October 20. Vandy is too well known to require an explanation of its strength. Last season it furnished Walter Camp with three players for his mythical elevens and held Michigan, Big Ten champions, to a scoreless tie.

After playing Southwestern University, of Georgetown, on October 27, the Texas team will open its conference schedule against Rice Institute, on November 3. This game will be played in Austin.

The following week the Longhorns will move to Waco, where they will meet the Baylor Bears, present champions of the Southwestern Conference. This game is looked forward to with particularly keen interest as it will mark the resumption of football relations with this school after a break of several years.

On November 17, the Longhorns will meet the University of Oklahoma Sooners in Austin for the last game previous to the Thanksgiving game at College Station. The Sooners are members of the Missouri Valley Conference, which is usually rated a notch above the Southwestern Conference. However, in the game of last season the Texas University entry upset the dope and won, 32-7.

The season will close with the annual struggle with Texas A. & M. This is the game toward which both teams work all season and the winning or losng of this game is taken as the measure of success for the whole season. Last year the Farmers came to Austin with the odds against them and won, 13-7. This victory broke the record of each team winning on its home field that had been established during the years previous, and the University of Texas is already raising the cry of "Make the Aggies lay their Bible down." in an effort to take this game on Kyle Field.

SPARKS OF TRUTH STRUCK LAST NIGHT

"For this purpose the Son of God was manifested that he might destroy the works of the devil."—1 John 3-8.

The purpose of Christ has never been altered.

Man was Created in His image to live in Holiness.

We are not fighting the weakness of flesh and blood alone but against principalities and all the influences and forces of the devil.

Satan is the Arch Deceiver.

If we could get a vision of Sin, we would adjust ourselves to the will of God who would save us from a harvest of misery and shame.

Sin is moral blindness.

Jesus always used the personal pronoun in speaking of the devil.

Jesus was divine as well as the Man of Galillee who came down the slopes of Jordan, conscious of his mission.

Besides Him there is no other God.

An unholy ambition is the secret of all sin.

Selfishness is the bottom of all sin.

Perfect peace comes to him whose mind is stayed on God.

The only hope of the world is Jesus Christ.

wonderful sermons that are being preached by the evangelist. Those who believe in the Christian religion as the hope of the community and country are enthusiastic in their commendation of his stirring messages. Those who are in the chu but indifferent to its claims who have attended any of the services so far held are awakening their responsibilities and are s to be blessed. All are invited to very service which brings inspirati to the low in spirit, cheer to the s rowing, hope to the sinner and blessing to the Christian.

The discourse of last night w pure and undefiled religion preach in the old fashioned way of powe and frankness. Dr. Bridgers believe in the Bible, every word of it and does not interpret it as a Book which may be read to fit our lives but sees it as Holy Writ to which men and women and children must make their own lives conform thru the Grace of God and His help and inspiration.

Just before the sermon of the evening, Dr. Bridgers sang: "He Loves Even Me."

The text last night was the latter portion of the eight verse of the third chapter of First John: "For this purpose the Son of God was manifested that he might destroy the works of the devil."

His subject "Who Made the Devil" was discussed from the Biblical and only reasonable point of view, many quotations being given throughout the discourse. In the beginning he stated that "I do not know as much about this subject as some others, nor as much as I will know when this body shall put on immortality. All that we know of the devil is that which is given us about him in His Word and through our own personal experience and contact with him in life. God's purpose in sending Jesus Christ, his Only Begotten Son, to this world was to destroy the works of the devil. That expressed purpose has never been altered. We see in Jesus Christ, the Deity and also see in Him the man of Galillee who came down the slopes of the Jordan conscious of his mission and purpose. He stands today tempted at all points. I have no forebodings of the outcome. We are convinced more and more that we are not fighting with the weaknesses of the flesh and blood alone but against principalities and powers. When you would do good evil is present with you. Satan is the arch deceiver. He laughs at the unhappiness his deception brings to the lives of humanity. If we could but catch a vision of Sin, we would adjust ourselves to the will of God and be saved from a harvest of misery and heartaches and suffering and strife.

Jesus always used the personal pronoun in speaking of the devil. He is a liar, says Jesus. in is moral blindness. The devil says to you it is no harm to do this or to do that.

At this point, the evangelist said that the violation of prohibition laws was the work of the devil, in which the evil one seeks to blind the eyes of the country to the awful results of the liquor traffic. He talks of having your personal liberty taken from you, but does not show you the untimely graves made by the licensed liquor tarffic. He does not show you the misery that it brings to the world; the widows and orphans that it creates; the homes that it wrecks; the souls that it destroys; the woe and want that it brings and the nations that it holds back.

The speaker challenged the ministry and the church to speak out unafraid and fearlessly when the devil tries to sugar coat sin and offer it as a tempting morsel to the lives of mankind. The devil is the tempter, the enemy of men and all that is worth while and holy in this world and eternity. He has no respect for anyone who fights for the right. We need to open our eyes to the sin that is visible in the worldliness of the day and in the pastimes which he offers through various organizations and institutions as harmless.

His Holy word says: "I am God and besides me there is none other."

Righteousness made unrighteousness possible. The Bible tells us that hell was not made for men but for the devil and his angels. The devil fell from his former high estate and in his fall the entire universe was shocked. Satan was not always a devil. Revelation 12:7-9. "* * * he was cast out into the earth and his angels were cast out with him."

Luke 10:18. "And he said unto them I beheld Satan as lightning fell from heaven."

God is one God.—Isaiah 14:12.

"What was the secret of Satan's fall?" Dr. Bridgers asked and then answered that it was due to an unholy ambition. He was at one time a spirit of great power. I do not know how this unholy ambition entered his life but we do know that unholy ambition is the cause of the wreck and ruin of many lives in this world today. Perfect peace comes to the man or woman whose mind is stayed on God. When man takes his eyes off of God and places them on self, he too is sure to fall. Satan as a serpent entered the garden of Eden to destroy man made in the Image of God, because he knew that the most precious of creations in the sight of the Creator was men.

Selfishness is at the bottom of all sin.

Man without God is hopeless.

The only hope of the world today is in Jesus Christ.

If self has crowded Him out, if worldly and selfish, then crucify self.

Some folks say there is no such thing as Sin. These are usually the biggest sinners. "I am afraid of the person who says that there is no such thing as sin."

Women may smoke cigarettes and dance all night and sell their virtue. Men may exploit women, defile their own bodies and commit crimes of the most heinous nature and its all right in the eyes of some folks, but the moment the ministry gets up and attacks some of these evils of the days, he is called "Coarse and common."

We need a ministry that is not afraid to stand up and defend righteousness and truth and Christianity.

Some folks say that theer is no harm in anything unless carried to extremes. At this point the speaker illustrated by a woman who had expressed her opinion in that fashion to him. He asked her if it was all right to steal just a little, to kill just a little, to commit adultery just a little.

You cannot live any higher than your ideas.

You cannot trust to human limitations. You must look higher. Sin is not a little irregularity. It is a principal.

Walter S. Josephson, a modest and hard-working mechanical genius, of New York, is the first man, so far as is known to store a highly explosive liquid for every day use. He is shown here in his laboratory releasing from a steel bottle a vapor which is powerful enough, when turned into a cylinder jack, to lift a street car in a few seconds. Josephson's development has been acclaimed by his scientfic associates as one of the foremost discoveries of the day and in its own field will rival radio in its sphere, they say. He has been offered a fortune for his device.

GIRLS' FINANCIAL SUCCESS ROMANCE OF MODERN BUSINESS

ADELE BARRETT

LEATHA JACKSON

THENA FELTZ

CHICAGO—If a girl finds it necessary to earn her own living, what occupation should she select? As a clerk she might make $15 a week, as a stenographer $20 or $25, as a school teacher $30 or $40 and in any of these occupations she would be cooped up within four walls.

Many women have answered this important question by selling subscription books. They earn from $3,000 to $7,000 a year. Several thousand college girls earn $800 and $1,000 in this work during summer vacation.

A number of women who have made successes recently wrote letters to their employers among the Subscription Book Publishers Association setting forth their views on the work. Here is what they had to say:

Mrs. T. J. Etheridge, Atlanta, Ga.—"From $18 a week to $5,000 a year—that tells my whole story."

Leatha Jackson, Denver, Colo.—"I like book salesmanship because when necessity demands, you can always increase your income. I have averaged $5,000 a year for five years. In 1920, I earned $5,000 working four hours a day. During the hard times of 1921, I earned $5,000 by working eight hours."

Adele Barrett, Berkeley, Calif.—"The first summer I earned more money than I had earned in one year teaching. The knowledge that I am rendering a service to mankind has made me happy."

Grace Fay, Chicago—"The checks I drew the first summer almost took my breath away. Besides earning more money than I ever did teaching, I have had the pleasure of travel."

Mary B. Hill, Nashville, Tenn.—"I made $900 the first summer."

Thena Feltz, Los Angeles—"It amuses me when some one says, 'But I have never done anything of that kind.' Neither had I seven years ago. But I have averaged $5,000 and $6,000 a year and traveled through eleven western states, western Canada and old Mexico."

"There were many more letters like these," said a subscription book publisher. "Selling books in house to house campaigns takes a woman into the healthful open air, brightens her mind and develops her personality. It is a business with ideals. The woman who sells books is an educational force elevating the standards of citizenship."

Shriners Chicken Barbecue Distinct Success Friday

The Shrine club's chicken barbecue held Friday night at the Playgrounds, was one of the best attended and most enjoyable of events yet held by this live organization of Shriners. Nobles were present from Teague, Groesbeck, Wortham and other points in this vicinity and a delightful chicken barbecue was served under the electrically lighted tree just Southwest of the Humphreys club building. The occasion was very informal, only a few words being spoken in the course of the banquet, those by Persident Frank Bolton, of the club, in introducing, A. Garland Adair, as honor guest of the club on the occasion. The latter expressed great admiration for the Shrine club, because of its splendid personnel and its active and loyal officers. Following the feast, the crowd repaired to the pevillion where dancing was enjoyed by those who care for the terpischorean pastime. Others took a plunge in the refreshing waters of the Navasota near by. Still others mingled together in happy conversation and when eleven o'clock, the Nobles and their ladies began to leave with a feeling that the event had been a distinct success and wishing for many others like it.

Mrs. J. P. Grover of E. Titus has this week as her guest Mrs. H. Harper of Fort Worth, formerly of Mexia.

Miss Beatrice Royal of Corsicana is visiting her friend, Miss Elise Gibson for the week.

Miss Cecile Keith, an employe of E. L. Smith Oil Co., left Tuesday for a two weeks vacation to Galveston and Houston.

By HENRY L. FARRELL.
United Press Staff Correspondent
(Copyright, 1923, by the United Press)

GREAT FALLS, Mont., June 26.—While Jack Dempsey and Tommy Gibbons start into the critical part of their training for their championship fight in Shelby, July 4, the promoters are trying to find the money to put the show over.

They are seeking a financial "angel" to dig down in his jeans and advance enough cash to pay the final $100,000 installment of Dempsey's purse.

Reports that a Seattle lumber man had guaranteed to advance the sum are discounted here. General sentiment here is that another "angel" will be hard to find and that the money for the arena and the Dempsey purse will have to be raised from the ticket sale.

Dan Tracey, fight manager, before leaving for Shelby, said the tickets in the hands of agents had all been recalled, and that he hoped to have some definite figures on the amount of sales not later than Tuesday night. He hopes to find enough money to give Dempsey his remaining $100,000.

It was pointed out the returns would have to be large because as soon as the money is available the promoters will have to turn over the $100,000 loaned to them to meet the second installment and in addition they will have to pay the contractors $70,000 for building the arena before they have a place to stage the bout.

Tracey said, $614,000 worth of tickets had been placed in the hands of agents and he thought it entirely possible he would get enough money back to meet the overhead.

Dempsey planned to lay off training today, according to Jack Kearns, who said the champion was in good shape. "He boxed ten fast rounds yesterday and finished without breathing," Kearns said.

The champion, Kearns said, will complete his training next Sunday, and will do no more work until the day of the fight.

Gibbons, the challenger, also is easing up, according to his manager, Eddie Kane, who was here for a conference about the movie rights.

While several factions are engaged in controversy over the management and financing of the big fight, some more discord broke out here when plans were suggested to change the date and stage the fight here on July 2. Moy Molumby said, he would oppose the plan unless it was to be staged under the auspices of the American Legion, of which he is State commander. The card planned for July 3, in the arena at Shelby was called off last week.

Orphans of Commerce

ON nearly every merchant's shelves are a few unknown left-overs. They have been there a long time. No one remembers just how long. Dingy, faded and soiled, they seem to be edging away from their more brightly dressed neighbors to a place of seclusion. There is a story behind these shabby little strangers.

A story of how once they were proud and new, dressed in clothes as gaudy and bright as the latest vial of perfume from Paris.

They were sold to the merchant by a salesman who knew their merits. For a time the merchant remembered their merits and told his customers. But little by little these merits were forgotten. The merchant, with his many items, slowly forgot even their names. New clerks never heard of them.

When some of their more fortunate shelf mates were advertised, merchants began to display these lines more prominently and uncalled for and unsold the unknown. It takes little effort and little time to sell goods which everyone knows about.

The shabby little orphans are gradually disappearing. They are being given away or thrown away to make room. Tomorrow they shoppers selected the goods they became acquainted with through printers' ink, leavin will be gone.

On the Tehuacana road, just beyond the city limits of Mexia,The Dodson Boiler and Machine Works is located. The institution is one of the busiest in the field at this time and serving a very needy purpose. Instead of closing down or confining its activiey to a smaller scope, this plant is constantly expanding and enjoying a larger patronage under the able management of Mr. Dodson.

He came here in the early life of the field and soon made friends by the score among the operators here, who threw him and his big plant the business that has been necessary to build it up into one of the largest institutions of its kind and character to be found in the oil fields of Cenrtal East Texas.

He not only erceives work loially but attends to orders sent from other places, whe rtehe erputation for good work has spread.

Within the last few days, the capacity of the shops have been doubled to meet this growing demand and need. Mr. Dodson states that the concern is in a position to take care of all custom work such as bit dressing, welding, boiler repairing, smoke stacks, blacksmithing and heavy forging. This announcement together with the announcement that the plant is open day and night for the service of this and all adjacent field is considered an important one in this section. The paint does lathe work, boiler work, weldings, blacksmithing, heavy forging, sheet iron work, and other work found in a well equipped and efficiently managed boiler and machine hsop.

RISKS ALL ON TURN OF CARD AND LOSES

On the turn of a card! One of the most dramatic scenes in "Prodigal Daughters," a Sam Wood Paramount production starring Gloria Swanson which is showing at the National theatre today, is where the star in the role of "Swiftie" Forbes gets into the toils of a gambler and stakes a fortune which she has already lost to him, as well as her own future, upon a cut of the cards.

She cuts a smaller card than the gambler—and loses.

What is the result? She must be saved, but how is the heroine extricated from her perdicament? That is a problem that will cause much suspense in a picture that is full of that quality. Monte M. Katterjohn adapted the Joseph Hocking novel and brought it up to the moment in every respect. It is in fact ultra-modern with radio, the latest in jazz dancing, extravagant parties and a thrilling rescue by aeroplane plentifully interspersed. Yet withal, it carries a tremendous story with a motive which has its roots in the heart of present day life and its problems.

WEDS KOSSE YOUNG MAN

Miss Iva Dell Hill was united in marriage to Mr. Stanley Chambers of Kosse at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hill, Monday evening Rev. P. P. Lewis officiating. The couple left imediately for Mexia, where they boarded a train for a trip to El Paso and other points in the West. After a few days' visit they will be at home at Kosse.

The bride was reared here and is recognized as one of the finest young ladies of the community. After graduating in the Coolidge high school she attended Baylor university and during the past year taught in the Kosse schools. Her many Coolidge friends, while regretting that she will no longer make her home here wish her the fullest measure of happiness in the future. Mr. Chambers is to be congratulated on his choice of such a talented and worthy young woman as his life companion.—Coolidge Herald.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Landrum left today for Dallas, from which place Mrs. Landrum will proceed to Little Rock, Arkansas. Mrs. Landrum will spend July with her mother in that city and Mr. Landrum will go to Ft. Worth on a brief business mission.

UNDIES FOR SUMMER .....

Fashion Editor of the United Press

Written for the United Press

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 26.—

The inner side of every cloud
They say is bright and shining.
You've but to turn them inside out,
To show their silver lining."

The inner side of every frock
We also find is lined
With pink or blue or pink or green
To match the frock designed.

* * *

Undergarments this year match the frock with which they are worn or carry out the color of the frock in lighter tones. Even the little cotton frock has lingerie of colored voille to match it. Voille underwear is best when simply made and trimmed in embroidered rosebuds or hemstitching, rather than when lace trimmed, as lace is more effective when used on crepe de chene, georgette or chiffon.

Replacing flesh shades are colors such as peach, nile green. Mountain haze and lemon. These colors are made up in cotton garments as well as in silk ones. Quantities of lace are used this season, as women have grown weary of the simple hemstitched garments. Medallions of lace embroidered with monograms are set onto dobies of costume slips and step-ins. Wide bands of lace form yokes on many garments and are also used as a border about the petticoat hems and drawers.

Step-in drawers attached to long bodices are among the summery models. The other day I saw a practical garment of this sort which did away with a separate costume slip. A long bodice with darwer attachment back of the waistline so that a petticoat could be buttoned onto it, eliminhad buttons at the sides, front and ating the costume slip, and at the same time holding the petticoat at a low waistline.

Irish lace is used extensively this season on undergarments. It is often dyed to match the color of the garment. Since ecru is so popular as a dress shade, ecru dyed lace used on an ecru crepe de chene garmnt is lovely. Being a nutral shade ecru can be used under various colored frocks.

Vacation Undergarments

Among the new crepes one can find numerous lovely materials for the vacation underwear, which is easily launderied and will require no ironing. Crepes are always prettier in colors than in white, as white turns yellow so quickly unless alundered by experts. The most practical crepe lingerie is made without lace or trimming, except hemstitching or border effects of contrasting color. Some of the novelty crepes are lovely for the out-door girl, as they have borders with tennis racquets, golf balls, etc., stenciled in contrasting colors.

While pongee makes a practical vacation undergarment, it is not as cool as other silks or cotton materials.

Nightgowns which have become torn under the arms can be cut off and stitched on a band of wide lace to which are attached shoulder straps, making a cool vacation nightrobe.

Miss Elsie Desenbery has received a letter from her father Mr. Julius Desenberg, in which he stated that the weather in aKnsas City is something terribel. He and Mrs. Desenberg and daughter, Miss Corinne, were laving for cooler climes in Yellowstone park. Police Commissioner Richard E. Without hesitation, Enright followed the fugitive into a hallway, bullets splintering the wall all about him, and finally cornered him. Lambatta was found to be seriously wounded. Enright, it developed, was not armed.

ALL NOTED PLAYERS IN SWANSON PICTURE

If, a few years ago, a casting director had handed in a cast such as that supplied Gloria Swanson in her latest Paramount picture, "Prodigal Daughters," which is playing at the National theatre today, the chances are the studio management would collapse. But Paramount is determined that casts of the highest possible calibre shall grace each of its pictures, and no expense to that end was spared. Here is the line-up for the picture in question:

Gloria Swanson, star; Ralph Graves, leading man; Vera Reynolds, Charles Clary, Theodore Roberts, George Fawcett, Robert Agnew, Louise Dresser, Madue Wayne and Julia Faye.

In the list are at least three who have had remarkable stage careers. Sveral more have been leading figures of the silent drama for years. The star is one of the screen's most beautiful and bst dressed women. And yet every player is picked because of suitability as well as ability.

JUDGE RENDERS JUDGMENT OF SOLOMON

Judge Joseph David, in Municipal Court, in Chicago, was forced to render the Judgment of Solomon when he awarded to Mrs. Julia Warzna Pribylski the custody of 5-year-old Leona Felicia Warzna and pronounced her the real mother of the child. Mrs. Nicholas Lenz, who also claimed the child, collapsed. Mrs. Prebylski claimed the child was born to her in Poland in 1918. Mrs. Lenz asserted the child was born to her in Chicago as the result of a Caesarian operation the same year. Judge David asserted there had been much perjury in the case.

Gushers Come Back To Life In Waco Monday

Redskins Are Defeated Five To Two In Game

The Gushers came back to life and added another game to their column by defeating the Waco Indians in the game Monday by the score of 5 to 2. The game was interesting all the way through. Royster and Shires contesting first baseman on the opposing squads engaged in a little difference, one of the results of which that both were sent to showers and civies.

Fred Karner, who attended the game, reports that Leedy made one of the most wonderful plays he had ever seen. Barehanded he caught a hot one right off the bat down toward second base which loomed as a valuable single for the Redskins as it passed across the diamond, which otherwise would have allowed two runs.

Hub Northen was given credit for saving the day when he caught a high one on first which looked like a sure overthrow. Hub went to first sack after Royster left the game. Tiner went to right field and Hill kept on pitching. At the time that Hub made the fine catch, the game looked disastrous for the Gushers, as the Indians had gathered together for a final rally to win the contest.

Waller played a fine game in the field for the Redskins and hit a double and a single in his trips to the bat. Lewis and Ferguson, short stop and right field players for the Indians had a day off it seemed, each making two errors.

The Gushers bunched five hits with Waco errors and counted five runs in the second inning, but after that they only touched Green for three hits.

Salesmen Win Game From The Lions Monday

The Salesmanship club base ball nine, Monday, turned out to be a bunch of Lion Tamers by taking the Lions into camp and out the back door by the score of 16 to 11. The Lions whooped and roared and cut up in general but to no avail and the Salesmanship boys just worked on the harder until the Lions were ready for a good tall tree to climb, but if they had the Sailors would have put on full speed and got a tree just a little higher for their roosting place. Both nines hit the ball to all four corners of the park and nearly everyone made enough errors to do the Gushers for a whole season and have some to start in on next season. Jimmie Stewart started in the box for the Lion Tamers and he went well until his southpaw flinger went to the bad and he was forced to retire in favor of Hardy Eubanks and he was nicked for several runs and hits, but not enough to come in reach of the leaders. Phil Karner was in the box for the Lions and pitched creditable ball, with the exceptions of a few bad innings and he retired at the last and let Blake Forrest throw'em across to the boys.

Robert Nunn playing left field for the Lions made several sensational catches of ball that looked mighty bad and he swatted a three bagger to make things the more merrier.

It took the whole corps of score keepers to cover the game and Charley Clover was perspiring like a water cooler, but looked more like a red hot stove.

The crowd was invisible almost, but those that were there had the time of their lives watching the agate tossers and swatters work for a while. Many of the playres palyed out before quitting time and had to be supplied with new material.

"If we have tears prepare to shed them now!" For it is only on the WESTBOUND passage that this order for ales, wines and spiritous beverages will have any weight with the officials on the White Star Line. On the EAST BOUND voyages, from New York to England, the ships have to be bone dry. But coming to America passengers can order all the liquor they can consume—and they must consume it before they reach the three-mile line off the coast of America, for there it is thrown overboard.

SPORTLIGHTS

They have big crowds at the ball game down at Austin. Something like six hundred came out to see the Gushers win the second game from the Rangers there. Just think of a city of 40,000 or more having a crowd of 600 out to see the national pastime.

It is ture that here of late that we have not been having enormous crowds out at the games but we usually have about 8 or 9 hundred on week day, and about 1,000 on Sundays and this is just a small town of 10,000 people, or perhaps less. But why should we worry.

Ludwig, former Gusher and Indian pitcher, has been released by the Indians and has signed and is playing with the Rosebud Rose in the News-Tribune League. He pitched a game against the Comets of Cameron and allowed 5 hits and struck out eight men. Rosebud won 4 to 2.

Austin pitched an easy man against the Sherman Sox yesterday and the Sox won 8 to 4. Watch out.

Why should such things bring up a fight. We like to see the game played clean without anything to mar the pleasure. Of course, when the game is lagging a little some would like to see a fight to liven up things, but no matter how dry the game is, we don't like to see fights to liven up things.
